

EXEMPTION CERTIFICATE—PROPERTY USED IN TRIBAL SELF-GOVERNANCE AND STATEMENT OF DELIVERY

NOTICE TO SELLER AND PURCHASER

Sales tax does not apply when a retailer transfers ownership of merchandise (tangible personal property) to a tribal government of an officially recognized Indian tribe provided all of the following conditions are met:

Retailers located outside Indian country may sell to Indian purchasers who request delivery in Indian country. For a sale to qualify as a transfer of title (ownership) in Indian country, both of the following conditions must be met:

- The tribal government’s Indian tribe does not have a reservation; or the principal place where the tribal government meets to conduct tribal business is not on the tribe’s reservation because the reservation does not have a building in which the tribal government can meet; or the reservation lacks mail service from the United States Postal Service (USPS) or essential utility services;
- The property is purchased by the tribal government for use in tribal self-governance, including the governance of tribal members, the conduct of inter-governmental relationships, and the acquisition of trust land; and
- The property is delivered to the tribal government and ownership of the property transfers to the tribal government at the principal place where the tribal government meets to conduct tribal business (tribal business location).

Retailers located outside Indian country may sell to Indian purchasers who request delivery at the tribal business location. For a sale to qualify as a transfer of title (ownership) at the tribal business location, both of the following conditions must be met:

- The contract of sale or other sales agreement cannot transfer ownership of the item to the tribal government before it is delivered to the tribal business location; and
- The tribal government or the tribal government’s agent cannot take possession of the item before delivery at the tribal business location.

In addition, the retailer generally must deliver the product by:

- Using the retailer’s vehicle or other facilities of the retailer; or
- By mail, common carrier (UPS, FedEx, etc.), or contract carrier (a shipping, trucking, or transport company), when both of the following requirements are met:
 - o The contract of sale or sales invoice must include a statement specifically requiring delivery at the tribal business location (for example, F.O.B. address of tribal business location); and
 - o The goods are in fact delivered to the tribal government at the tribal business location.

When delivery does not take place as described above, ownership of the item being sold or purchased generally transfers to the purchaser at the retailer’s location. Please note: This is a general description of transfers of ownership. Specific rules may apply to certain types of sales and leases.

This document may be used to document that the sale was to the tribal government of an officially recognized Indian tribe for use in tribal self-governance and/or to document that delivery occurred at the tribal business location. The section labeled “Exemption Certificate” may be used to document that the property was sold to the tribal government of an officially recognized Indian tribe. Completion of this section in full by a tribal government will provide the retailer with sufficient documentation that the property was sold to the tribal government of an officially recognized Indian tribe. Additional documentation showing transfer of ownership and delivery of the property to the tribal government at the tribal business location must also be obtained. If the property is delivered by facilities of the retailer, proper completion of the Statement of Delivery and Notary Statement may serve as documentation that transfer of ownership and delivery of the property to a tribal government occurred at the tribal business location. If the property is delivered via common carrier or contract carrier, completion of the Statement of Delivery and Notary Statement is not required. Instead, the retailer should retain a bill of lading or other documents showing delivery at the tribal business location along with a contract of sale or other sales agreement specifically showing title passing to the tribal government at the tribal business location.
